We ask all media to read Editors' Note 1 relating to the two institutions in Derry/Londonderry named below.

The Chairman of the Historical Institutional Abuse Inquiry, Sir Anthony Hart, has announced details of four further thematic modules of evidence which will be the subject of Inquiry hearings this year.

Sir Anthony Hart, who was speaking this morning [at 10am, Monday, 11th May] at the commencement of today's proceedings at Banbridge Courthouse, said that a further three institutions are to be added to the list of 13 establishments which he originally announced in September 2013 were to be investigated by the Inquiry.

In his remarks this morning, Sir Anthony also stated that a specific module would examine issues arising from the actions of Father Brendan Smyth in so far as these relate to the Inquiry's Terms of Reference

The Inquiry's next module, Module 5, will commence on 8th June and will focus on two former institutions in Derry/Londonderry; Fort James Children's Home in Ardmore Road and Harberton House Assessment Centre in Irish Street.

Both these establishments were under the remit of the former Western Health and Social Services Board and have since closed.

The sixth module will focus on issues arising from the actions of Father Brendan Smyth. This module will commence on 22nd June and is expected to conclude by the end of June.

Module 7 will focus on four juvenile justice institutions - St Patrick's Training School, Belfast; Lisnevin Training School, County Down; Rathgael Training School, Bangor; and Hydebank Wood Young Offenders' Centre, Belfast. Hydebank Wood is a further addition to the institutions named by the Chairman in September 2013.

This module will commence on 1st September and is expected to last until November.

The Inquiry's eighth module will focus on two former children's homes run by the children's charity, Barnardo's; the Sharonmore Project and Macedon, both in Newtownabbey. This module will be heard in December and will conclude the Inquiry's business for 2015.

The Historical Institutional Abuse Inquiry was formally established in January 2013 by the Northern Ireland Executive. It has a remit to investigate child abuse which occurred in residential institutions in Northern Ireland over a 73-year period up to 1995.

In total, the Inquiry is expected to hear from more than 300 witnesses during the course of the public evidence sessions.

Sir Anthony met with Ministers in the Office of the First Minister and deputy First Minister in April 2014 to seek an extension of one year to the date by which the Inquiry must submit its report. This was subsequently granted in January 2015 and, therefore, under its amended Terms of Reference, the Inquiry is required to complete its hearings and all investigative work by mid-summer 2016, and has to submit its report to the Northern Ireland Executive by 17 January 2017.

Applications to participate in the Statutory Inquiry and Acknowledgement Forum are now closed. By the closing date, 524 individuals (excluding duplicate applications) had made a formal application to speak to the Inquiry and/or its Acknowledgement Forum. Most of the applications (330) have come from individuals residing in Northern Ireland. The Inquiry's Acknowledgement Forum has now completed its interviews and met with 428 applicants.

The Inquiry's Chairman, Sir Anthony Hart, is a retired High Court judge in Northern Ireland. The other members of the Inquiry are Geraldine Doherty, who was formerly the Head of the Central Council for Education and Training in Social Work in Scotland, and David Lane, who was formerly Director of Social Services in Wakefield, West Yorkshire, England.

The Inquiry's hearings are open to the public. Details of forthcoming proceedings will be posted regularly on the Inquiry's website: www.hiainquiry.org

5. The Inquiry has issued a Media Protocol and three legally-binding Restriction Orders of relevance to the media. It is essential that all editors, journalists, photographers and camera crews involved in covering the Inquiry's public evidence sessions read these documents, a copy of which is also displayed in the media room in Banbridge Courthouse.
6. Opening Remarks by Counsel will not be released in advance. The Inquiry is not releasing any further detailed information about the opening weeks at this time.
7. In Banbridge Courthouse, each witness is accompanied by a witness support officer from their arrival until they leave. A trained counsellor provided by Contact NI is also on site and available to everyone in attendance.
8. In addition, a wider support service has been established through the Office of the First Minister and deputy First Minister. This service provides support and advice to victims and survivors of institutional abuse, can offer counselling and advice on a wide range of issues. It is being operated by Contact NI in partnership with Lifeline and Advice NI. They can be on 028 90 750131.
9. Following an inter-departmental task force report, the Northern Ireland Executive, on 29 September 2011, announced there would be an Investigation and Inquiry into historical institutional abuse.
10. On 31 May 2012, the First Minister and deputy First Minister announced the Terms of Reference for the Inquiry, and advised the Assembly of the Chair of the Inquiry and of the Panel Members for the Acknowledgement Forum.
11. An amended terms of reference to widen the scope of the Inquiry from 1922 - 1995 was announced by the First Minister and deputy First Minister on 18 October 2012. See <http://www.northernireland.gov.uk/news-ofmdfm-191012-ministers-widen-historical>
12. On 12 June 2012, the Inquiry into Historical Institutional Abuse Bill and the associated Explanatory and Financial Memorandum were laid before the Assembly. The Bill passed through a number of stages and, on 11 December 2012, the 'Inquiry into Historical Institutional Abuse Bill' was passed by the Assembly. Following Royal Assent, the Inquiry into Historical Institutional Abuse Act (Northern Ireland) 2013 became law on 19 January 2013. The Inquiry is formally established under this Act.
13. Sir Anthony met with Ministers in the Office of the First Minister and deputy First Minister in April 2014 to seek an extension of one year to the date by which the Inquiry must submit its report. This was subsequently granted in January 2015 and, therefore, under its amended Terms of Reference, the Inquiry is required to complete its hearings and all investigative work by mid-summer 2016, and has to submit its report to the Northern Ireland Executive by 17 January 2017.
14. The Inquiry has a remit to investigate physical, emotional and sexual childhood abuse, and childhood neglect which occurred in residential institutions in Northern Ireland over a 73-year period up to 1995.
15. For the purposes of this Inquiry "child" means any person under 18 years of age; "institution" means any body, society or organisation with responsibility for the care, health or welfare of children in Northern Ireland, other than a school (but including a training school or borstal) which, during the relevant period, provided residential accommodation and took decisions about and made provision for the day to day care of children; "relevant period" means the period between 1922 and 1995 (both years inclusive).
16. It should be noted that the Inquiry has been tasked with examining whether there were institutional failings in respect of historical abuse and neglect. The Inquiry has no legal power to find anyone guilty of criminal acts.
17. The Inquiry is chaired by Sir Anthony Hart, assisted by Panel members Geraldine Doherty and David Lane. Acknowledgement Forum Panel members are: Beverley Clarke, Norah Gibbons, Dave Marshall QPM and Tom Shaw CBE. Biographical details for these individuals, Senior
