The Historical Institutional Abuse Inquiry will commence its twelfth thematic module of public hearings with an Opening Hearing at 10.00 hours (GMT), Monday, 7th March 2016 at Banbridge Courthouse, Banbridge, Co. Down, Northern Ireland.

Module 12 will consider evidence in respect of a number of institutions run by the Good Shepherd Sisters. The institutions were located in Belfast, Derry/Londonderry and Newry.

The proceedings will commence with a brief opening address from the Inquiry's Chairman, Sir Anthony Hart. Counsel to the Inquiry, Joseph Aiken, will provide an overview of matters relating to those institutions run by the Good Shepherd Sisters. The module is expected to last two weeks.

The Historical Institutional Abuse Inquiry was formally established in January 2013 by the Northern Ireland Executive. It has a remit to investigate child abuse that occurred in residential institutions in Northern Ireland over a 73-year period from 1922 to 1995.

In total, the Inquiry is expected to hear from more than 450 witnesses during the course of the public evidence sessions.

Under the Inquiry's revised Terms of Reference, the Inquiry is required to complete its hearings and all investigative work by mid-summer 2016, and has to submit its report to the Northern Ireland Executive by 17th January 2017.

Applications to participate in the Statutory Inquiry and Acknowledgement Forum are now closed. By the closing date, 524 individuals (excluding duplicate applications) had made a formal application to speak to the Inquiry and/or its Acknowledgement Forum. Most of the applications (330) have come from individuals residing in Northern Ireland. The Inquiry's Acknowledgement Forum has now completed its interviews and met with 428 applicants.

A total of 22 institutions in Northern Ireland are under investigation by the Inquiry in relation to allegations of historical institutional abuse and/or neglect and have been or will be the subject of public hearings. In addition, there are a small number of other homes or institutions where the Inquiry has identified specific issues which it considers need to be investigated, but which do not justify being investigated in full-scale public hearings.

The Inquiry's Chairman, Sir Anthony Hart, is a retired senior High Court judge who practised in Northern Ireland. The other members of the Inquiry are Geraldine Doherty, who was formerly the Head of the Central Council for Education and Training in Social Work in Scotland, and David Lane, who was formerly Director of Social Services in Wakefield, West Yorkshire, England.

The Inquiry's hearings are open to the public. Details of forthcoming proceedings will be posted regularly on the Inquiry's website: www.hiainquiry.org

Notes to Editors

1. The Opening Hearing to the public evidence sessions for Module 12 will take place commencing at 10.00 hours GMT on Monday, 7th March 2016 in Banbridge Courthouse, Victoria St., Banbridge, Co. Down, BT32 3DH, Northern Ireland. We would ask all media to be seated by 9.50 hours.
2. A pool arrangement is in place with UTV to enable all accredited broadcast media outlets which have provided sufficient advance notice to UTV to have timely access to footage and audio material from the morning's proceedings at the Module 12 Opening Hearing, and with Press Eye to have timely access to photographs of the same where sufficient notice to Press Eye has been given. No other filming or audio recording, and no photography, is permitted anywhere within Banbridge Courthouse or within its gates.
3. Module 12 will hear evidence from a number of applicants to the Inquiry. The institutions were run by the Congregation of Our Lady of Charity of the Good Shepherd known as "The Good Shepherd Sisters".
 - Belfast
The Congregation ran a number of institutions on the Ormeau Road site as detailed below:
Sacred Heart Home, a residential home for girls operated from 1922-1962 and catered for children aged 2 years to 16 years.
Adolescent Centre opened in 1970 and closed in 1982 – it catered for teenagers up to 18 years.
St Mary's Belfast opened in 1882 and catered mainly for adult women although it accepted a small number of children over compulsory school age. It later ceased taking in teenagers and around 1979 re-registered as a home for persons in need, catering for adults only. In 1996 the residential home known as "Greenvale" opened as a residential home for adults only.

- Derry/Londonderry

The Good Shepherd Sisters opened a house in Derry/Londonderry in 1919. As with the Good Shepherd Sisters in Belfast the Congregation ran a number of institutions on the site. These were:

Sacred Heart Children's Home which opened in 1936 and closed in 1952. The home catered for children aged between 2 years and 16 years.

Teenage Unit - opened in 1969 and operated until 1973.

St Mary's - catered mainly for adult women but accepted a small number of teenagers. It ceased admitting teenagers around 1980/81 but continued to operate catering for adult women only until 1994.

Residential housing is now located on the site although the Good Shepherd Sisters continue to have a community in Derry/Londonderry.

- Newry

The Good Shepherd Sisters purchased a property in Newry in 1945 and the residential home known as St Mary's opened in 1946/47. It catered mainly for adult women but accepted a small number of teenagers. It was re-registered, in later years, as a home for persons in need but closed in 1984.

The property was subsequently transferred to a charity and the Good Shepherd Sisters no longer have a community in Newry.

4. The Inquiry has issued a Media Protocol and three legally-binding Restriction Orders of relevance to the media. It is essential that all editors, journalists, photographers and camera crews involved in covering the Inquiry's public evidence sessions read these documents, a copy of which is also displayed in the media room in Banbridge Courthouse.
5. Opening Remarks by the Chairman and Counsel will not be released in advance.
6. In Banbridge Courthouse, each witness is accompanied by a witness support officer from their arrival until they leave. A trained counsellor provided by Contact NI is also on site and available to everyone in attendance.
7. Following an inter-departmental task force report, the Northern Ireland Executive, on 29 September 2011, announced there would be an Investigation and Inquiry into historical institutional abuse.
8. On 31 May 2012, the First Minister and deputy First Minister announced the Terms of Reference for the Inquiry, and advised the Assembly of the Chair of the Inquiry and of the Panel Members for the Acknowledgement Forum.
9. An amended terms of reference to widen the scope of the Inquiry from 1922 - 1995 was announced by the First Minister and deputy First Minister on 18 October 2012. See <http://www.northernireland.gov.uk/news-ofmdfm-191012-ministers-widen-historical>
10. On 12 June 2012, the Inquiry into Historical Institutional Abuse Bill and the associated Explanatory and Financial Memorandum were laid before the Assembly. The Bill passed through a number of stages and, on 11 December 2012, the 'Inquiry into Historical Institutional Abuse Bill' was passed by the Assembly. Following Royal Assent, the Inquiry into Historical Institutional Abuse Act (Northern Ireland) 2013 became law on 19 January 2013. The Inquiry is formally established under this Act.

11. Sir Anthony met with Ministers in the Office of the First Minister and deputy First Minister in April 2014 to seek an extension of one year to the date by which the Inquiry must submit its report. This was subsequently granted in January 2015 and, therefore, under its amended Terms of Reference, the Inquiry is required to complete its hearings and all investigative work by mid-summer 2016, and has to submit its report to the Northern Ireland Executive by 17 January 2017.
12. The Inquiry has a remit to investigate physical, emotional and sexual childhood abuse, and childhood neglect which occurred in residential institutions in Northern Ireland over a 73-year period up to 1995.
13. For the purposes of this Inquiry “child” means any person under 18 years of age; “institution” means anybody, society or organisation with responsibility for the care, health or welfare of children in Northern Ireland, other than a school (but including a training school or borstal) which, during the relevant period, provided residential accommodation and took decisions about and made provision for the day to day care of children; “relevant period” means the period between 1922 and 1995 (both years inclusive).
14. It should be noted that the Inquiry has been tasked with examining whether there were institutional failings in respect of historical abuse and neglect. The Inquiry has no legal power to find anyone guilty of criminal acts.
15. The Inquiry is chaired by Sir Anthony Hart, assisted by Panel members Geraldine Doherty and David Lane. Acknowledgement Forum Panel members are: Beverley Clarke, Norah Gibbons, Dave Marshall QPM and Tom Shaw CBE. Biographical details for these individuals, Senior and Junior Counsel to the Inquiry, and other members of the Inquiry team are available on the Inquiry website: www.hiainquiry.org
16. The Chairman announced on 4 November 2015 that the Inquiry would be investigating an additional 6 homes or institutions in relation to alleged historical institutional abuse and/or neglect. The full list of homes/institutions is as follows:
