Press Release

HIA Inquiry comes to an end and the Chairman urges the Secretary of State to implement the recommendations of its Report

Issued: 30 June 2017

Embargoed until 12 midnight on 30 June 2017

All media requests for information should be directed to the Inquiry Secretary Stephen Magee on 02890 720628 or at stephen.magee@hiainquiry.org.

Sir Anthony Hart, the Chairman of the Historical Institutional Abuse Inquiry, has today written to the Secretary of State for Northern Ireland to notify him that the Inquiry has fulfilled its Terms of Reference, and as a result the Inquiry has now officially come to an end.

In his letter Sir Anthony took the opportunity to remind the Secretary of State of his letter to the leaders of the political parties in the Assembly of 12 June, and he again urged them to implement the recommendations of the Inquiry in full as a matter of urgency. He said:

“The Inquiry delivered its report to the then First Minister and deputy First Minister on Friday 6 January, 2017, and published the Report on Friday 20 January. Section 13 of the 2013 Act requires the First Minister and deputy First Minister to lay the Inquiry before the Assembly as soon “as is reasonably practicable after publication”. This has not been done because of the collapse of the devolved institutions.

However, during the Assembly debate on the Report on 23 January 2017 all the speakers welcomed the Report, and supported its speedy implementation. As you may be aware I wrote to the leaders of the other parties in the Assembly on 12 June 2017 urging that the recommendations in the Report be implemented in full as a matter of urgency.

You will also be aware that in the House of Commons on 8 February 2017, in an answer to a question by Tom Elliott MP (Fermanagh and South Tyrone (UUP), the Prime Minister said

“I am sure, looking ahead, that whatever is necessary will be done to ensure that the findings of the report are taken into account and acted upon.”

Because of the wide welcome for, and support of the Report, expressed in the previous Assembly on 23 January, and the clear undertaking by the Prime Minister to the House of Commons on 8 February that the findings of the report will be “taken into account and acted upon’ I feel justified in urging you to put in hand the necessary steps to implement the recommendations of the Inquiry in full as a matter of urgency and without delay.

As I said in my letters of 12 June to the leaders of the political parties in the Northern Ireland Assembly:

‘The implementation of our recommendations is urgent because so many of those who waited many years for their voices to be heard, and who anxiously await the implementation of our recommendations, are now advancing in years and/or in poor health, and for them the prospect of more delay adds to the burden so many have carried for so long.’“

NOTES TO EDITORS

1. The Report is the culmination of four years’ work by the Inquiry. It is 2,300 pages long and comprises 10 volumes. It includes the report of the Acknowledgement Forum.
2. The Report was delivered to the First Minister and deputy First Minister as required by the Inquiry into Historical Institutional Abuse Act (Northern Ireland) 2013 on 6th January 2017. A copy was also delivered on the same date to the Secretary of State for Northern Ireland, as the Inquiry had been asked to investigate the actions of non-devolved departments and agencies in respect of Kinvara.
3. The Inquiry published its Report and recommendations on 20 January 2017.
4. A debate was held on the Report and its recommendations by the Northern Ireland Assembly on Monday 23 January 2017. A report of the debate can be found at the following link and commences at 10:00 pm.
<http://aims.niassembly.gov.uk/officialreport/report.aspx?&eveDate=2017/01/23&docID=288331> .
5. Because the Historical Institutional Abuse Inquiry (the Inquiry) has now completed its work, and is now in the process of transferring the Inquiry record to the Public Record Office of Northern Ireland as required by Rule 20 (b) of the Inquiry into Historical Institutional Abuse Rules (NI) 2013, by Section 5 (1) (a) of the Inquiry into Historical Institutional Abuse Act (NI) 2013 (the 2013 Act) the Inquiry comes to an end when Chairman notifies the First Minister and the deputy First Minister that the Inquiry has fulfilled its terms of reference. Because there is not a First Minister nor a deputy First Minister the Chairman has notified the Secretary of State.
6. The full text of the Parliamentary Question to the Prime Minister can be found at Volume 621 Column 425 on 08 February 2017 at this link <https://hansard.parliament.uk/Commons/2017-02-08/debates/65EEF8A3-AF8D-4389-911E-DB74DAB29F08/Engagements>

7. There were 223 days of public hearings, which formally opened on 13 January 2014 and concluded on Friday 8 July 2016. During the course of the public evidence sessions the Inquiry heard from 527 witnesses. Of these 246 were applicants who gave evidence in person and a further 87 applicants' statements were read into the record.
8. In total 526 individuals made a formal application to speak to the Inquiry and/or its Acknowledgement Forum. Most of the applications (330) were from individuals residing in Northern Ireland. The Inquiry's Acknowledgement Forum heard from 428 of those applicants.
9. Following an inter-departmental task force report, the Northern Ireland Executive, on 29 September 2011, announced there would be an Investigation and Inquiry into historical institutional abuse.
10. On 31 May 2012, the First Minister and deputy First Minister announced the Terms of Reference for the Inquiry, and advised the Assembly of the Chair of the Inquiry and of the Panel Members for the Acknowledgement Forum.
11. An amended Terms of Reference to widen the scope of the Inquiry from 1922 - 1995 was announced by the First Minister and deputy First Minister on 18 October 2012. See <http://www.northernireland.gov.uk/news-ofm-dfm-191012-ministers-widen-historical>
12. On 12 June 2012, the Inquiry into Historical Institutional Abuse Bill and the associated Explanatory and Financial Memorandum were laid before the Assembly. The Bill passed through a number of stages and, on 11 December 2012, the 'Inquiry into Historical Institutional Abuse Bill' was passed by the Assembly. Following Royal Assent, the Inquiry into Historical Institutional Abuse Act (Northern Ireland) 2013 became law on 19 January 2013. The Inquiry is formally established under this Act.
13. Sir Anthony met with Ministers in the Office of the First Minister and deputy First Minister in April 2014 to seek an extension of one year to the date by which the Inquiry must submit its report. This was subsequently granted in January 2015 and, therefore, under its amended Terms of Reference, the Inquiry was required to complete its hearings and all investigative work by mid-summer 2016, and to submit its report to the Northern Ireland Executive within 6 months.
14. The Inquiry had a remit to investigate physical, emotional and sexual childhood abuse, and childhood neglect which occurred in residential institutions in Northern Ireland over a 73-year period up to 1995.
15. For the purposes of the Inquiry "child" meant any person under 18 years of age; "institution" meant anybody, society or organisation with responsibility for the care, health or welfare of children in Northern Ireland, other than a school (but including a training school or borstal) which, during the relevant period, provided residential accommodation and took decisions about and made provision for the day to day care of children; "relevant period" meant the period between 1922 and 1995 (both years inclusive).
16. It should be noted that the Inquiry was tasked with examining whether there were institutional failings in respect of historical abuse and neglect. The Inquiry had no legal power to make findings of civil or criminal liability.
17. The Inquiry's Chairman, Sir Anthony Hart, is a retired senior High Court judge who practised in Northern Ireland. The other members of the Inquiry panel are Geraldine Doherty, who was formerly the Head of the Central Council for Education and Training in Social Work in Scotland, and David Lane CBE, who was formerly Director of Social Services in Wakefield, West Yorkshire, England.

18. Acknowledgement Forum Panel members are: Beverley Clarke, Norah Gibbons, Dave Marshall QPM and Tom Shaw CBE. Biographical details for these individuals, Senior and Junior Counsel to the Inquiry, and other members of the Inquiry team are available on the Inquiry website: www.hiainquiry.org

19. The Chairman announced on 4 November 2015 that the Inquiry would be investigating an additional 6 homes or institutions in relation to alleged historical institutional abuse and/or neglect. The full list of homes/institutions is as follows:

Local Authority Homes

- Lissue Hospital, Lisburn
- Kincora Boys' Home, Belfast
- Bawnmore Children's Home, Newtownabbey
- Fort James and Harberton House, Londonderry (added May 2015)

Juvenile Justice Institutions

- St Patrick's Training School, Belfast
- Lisnevin Training School, County Down
- Rathgael Training School, Bangor
- Hydebank Young Offenders' Centre (added May 2015)
- Millisle Borstal (added November 2015)

Secular Voluntary Homes

- Barnardo's Sharonmore Project, Newtownabbey
- Barnardo's Macedon, Newtownabbey

Roman Catholic Voluntary Homes

- St Joseph's Home, Termonbacca, Londonderry
